Unit Elects New Officers

A special initiation meeting was held by the Women of the Moose last Wednesday evening when three new members were received into the chapter. They were: Cleo Farrell sponsored by Charmegane Hobbs; Catherine Mitchell and Ruby Backstrom sponsored by Marie Trinkle.

New officers for the Torrance chapter, Women of the Moose, for the coming year are: Leona Schaefer, senior regent; Edna Mae Harvie, junior regent; Joyce Clay, recorder; Loraine Walker, treasurer; Marguerite Baudin, chaplain; Gladys Greig and Joyce McCune, guides; Gay Kamershauser, sentinel; and Charmagne Hobbs, Argus. The senior regent has appointed her committee chairman for the year.

Installation of the new officers will be held June 30 at the Moose Hall. This is an open meeting to which the public is invited.

JOBIES HAVE DAY AT BEACH

As the first social activity of the reign of Honored Queen Susan Babcock 35 members of Job's Daughters, Bethel 50, enjoyed a day at the beach on Friday, June 27.

The girls gathered at the Masonic Temple at 10:30 a.m., bringing their sack lunches. They went to Nob-Hill Beach. The buffet furnished the punch at lunchtime. They were accompanied by Mrs. Pearl Thayer, guardian, and Mrs. Edna Babcock.

Soc-Card Party 1:12 . . . Phil Members of St. Anthony's Guild will sponsor a card party this evening (Thursday) at the St. Margaret Mary parish hall, 255th and Eschelman, Lomita; Bridge, 500; pinocchio and canasta will be played. Mrs. Joe Prinsno, president, announces that there will be door prizes and refreshments.

AT CONFERENCE

The Rev. and Mrs. Howard Roscoe of the Lomita Methodist church spent last week at Redlands University where they attended the Southern California Methodist conference.

186th PTA Board Feted At Party

A party to thank her executive board members for their many hours of loyal service for the preceding year, was given by Mrs. Herman Eisenbeis, president of the 186th Street PTA. It was held Monday night at her home, and the theme of the decorations was "You're An Angel." Souvenir place cards decorating the table were miniature angels of fasteners and sequins.

Preceding the serving of refreshments, the first executive board meeting of the 1958-59 year was held. After the reading of the minutes of previous meetings, a resume of the year's accomplishments was given by Mrs. Eisenbeis. Mrs. Floyd Beech, vice and means chairman, thanked the other board members for making possible so many enjoyable and profitable ways and means projects.

Miss Ruth Engdahl, school principal, thanked everyone for their co-operation and help, and wished each a pleasant vacation. Miss Engdahl also announced that she would be leaving in a week for an extended tour of Alaska and Canada.

Those present included: Misses Floyd Phillips, Elsie Beech, W. S. Stewart, J. T. Evans Jr., Hugh Allen, Billie Lewis, Gay Cely, Robert Farmer, Melvin Sogge, Frank Nelson, William Turrentine, Curtis Barley, James McMillan, and Miss Ruth Engdahl and Miss Evelyn Buckley.

A MEMORIAL TREE . . . that will mark the first year of the Hillside PTA was planted on the school grounds in a ceremony on June 18. Voluntary collectors from PTA members purchased the tree. Pictured is Steven Ramirez with the shovel as Hillside students look on.

New PTA Council Has First Meeting of Year at Library

Torrance Council of Parents and Teachers met for the first time in the reading room of Torrance Library June 12 with newly installed president, Mrs. Francis Stockie, presiding.

Motion was made to hold a workshop Sept. 18 at the Baptist Church with an open council meeting to follow. An invitation will be extended to District PTA board members to accept the hospitality of Torrance Council for the early spring meeting. It was decided that all council members should receive the crescent courier.

President Stockie announced that future Torrance Council PTA board meetings will be held the second Tuesday of the school months in the North Torrance Elementary School auditorium. A committee to read and revise the bylaws was selected consisting of Misses Robert Payne, Eldon Morgan, J. L. Hinds and G. R. Malone.

Several urgent workshops scheduled for the month of June are: program, June 20; Mrs. W. E. Luman, June 21 at Carr Schools; Mrs. Eldon Morgan, membership; public and Newslette, Carr School, June 22, 1 p.m.; Mrs. J. R. Allison and Mrs. J. A. Jensen, record book, June 28 at 2 p.m., 22327 Sindycroft.

Mrs. Earl Weillver, finance and budget will be announced later.

The following ratified chairman were introduced: finance and budget, Mrs. R. E. Murphy; Founders' Day, Mrs. Lester Oswald; student welfare, Mrs. R. E. Trimble; dental health, Mrs. Francis Stockie; parent-education, Mrs. Kenneth McVey; spiritual and character education, Mrs. W. W. Jackson; school education, Mrs. William Crooket.

Facing the possibility of an addition of eight new units in the coming year, an extension chairman, Mrs. Evar Jansson, was added to the board. So widespread has become the school libraries in the city that a home reading and library service chairman will be added. This chairmanship will be handled by Mrs. Cass Sewall and Mrs. J. Pederson. For more informed council, this year will mark the beginning of a Newsletter under the guidance of Mrs. J. A. Jensen.

Superintendent of schools, Dr. J. H. Hill, greeted the incoming board members at the beginning of the session. Introduced as safety and civilian protection chairman was Mrs. Mark Wright, also of the school board.

MARCA WRIGHT WINS SCHOLARSHIP

Marca Wright, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Wright, of 1533 El Prado, has been granted a $400 scholarship at SC by the California Congress of Parents and Teachers; it was announced here last week.

Miss Wright, a senior at SC, received the grant which is made available each year to outstanding students planning an elementary teaching career.
